

HEALTH INDEPENDENCE PROGRAM

Chronic Wound Clinic Service

Presents a full day conference for health care providers and those with an interest in Wound Care

'The Many Faces of Wound Care'

Date: Thursday, 7th June 2018

Venue: Darebin Arts & Entertainment Centre (DAEC)

Location: Corner Bell Street & St Georges Rd, Preston

Off street parking available at venue at no charge

Conference Cost:

Early Bird before 27th April	Full Registration – After 27th April
Individual $95	Individual $125
Group of 10 or more – $85.00 each booked & paid together	Group of 10 or more – $115.00 each booked & paid together

To Register:

Call the DAEC box office 03 84708280 or

Online: darebinartscentre.com.au

Registrations Close 4th June, 2018

Program -

9:00 - 09:15 Opening

Sara Brentnall – Divisional Manager, Health Independence Program

09:15 - 10:00 The Red Leg, what could it be?

Dermatological – Dr Fiona Bruce, Dermatologist, Austin Health

Infection - Terry Swanson, Nurse Practitioner Wound Management, Southwest Healthcare

10:00 - 10:45 Diabetic Foot Ulcers

Julie Miller – Podiatry Services Manager, Austin Health

10:45 - 11:15 MORNING TEA

11:15 - 12:00 Compression Bandage Application

Linda Howell - Clinical Nurse Consultant, Wound Management Victoria

12:00 – 12:45 Taking the weight off to heal wounds

Dr Cilla Haywood - Geriatrician Austin Health

12:45 – 13:30 LUNCH

13:30 – 14:15 Case Studies

Chair – Associate Prof Michael Woodward, Austin Health

Panel – Terry Swanson, Associate Prof Geoff Sussman, Linda Howell and Fiona Bruce

14:15 – 14:45 Latest in Wound Research

Charne Miller – La Trobe University

14:45 – 15:15 AFTERNOON TEA

15:15 – 15:30 Kahootz Quiz

Louise Haussenger, Wound Care Nurse – Austin Health

15:30 – 16:00 Topical Negative Pressure

Terry Swanson, Nurse Practitioner Wound Management – Southwest Healthcare

16:00 – 16:30 Atypical Wounds

Associate Prof Geoff Sussman, Monash University & Austin Health

We would like to acknowledge the generous sponsorship of:

