

Australian Wound Management Association Inc

AWMA FELLOW

RECIPIENT 2006

Details of recipient's achievements were correct and current at time of the award.

Keryln Carville

- Recognised and inspirational Clinical Leader in wound management in Australian and Asia/Pacific region
- International and national invited speaker
- CNC with Silver Chain Nursing Service WA and A/Professor Domiciliary Nursing at Curtin University and Silver Chain
- Established Leg Ulcer assessment clinics at Silver Chain Nursing Service
- Author, Wound Care Manual (currently 5th edition)
- International and national keynote speaker
- Developed university based wound management curriculum and other credentialed programs
- Developed wound management modules for General Practitioners
- Has conducted wound prevalence surveys since 1992
- Principal investigator in a two state study comparing a silver product and cadexomer iodine
- State representative AWMA committee 1999-2004
- Member, Editorial Board Journal Primary Intention
- Chair, AWMA Standards Sub committee 2000 – present. Resulted in AWMA Standards in Wound Management published in 2002
- Chair, Review sub-committee of AWMA Standards in Wound Management
- Chair Australian Pressure Ulcer Advisory Panel (APUAP) Governance Committee 2006
- Member of pressure ulcer interest group that developed the Clinical Practice Guidelines for the Prediction and Prevention of Pressure Ulcers 2000
- Established data base to identify pressure ulcer incidence in Silver Chain Services 2002
- Regularly conducts national workshops at AWMA co-hosted conferences